

Chapter 17

Anti Christ

As far as Christians are concerned, they are familiar with the word Anti-Christ. But brothers belonging to other religions may not fully understand the meaning of the word. According to the prophecies of Christ, in the days nearing the Great day of Wrath, there will appear imposters who will perform miracles and claims themselves as Christ and also will appear false prophets. It may be from this prophecy that the word Anti Christ originated.

St. Paul, who has been promised the Third Heaven, has successfully portrayed Anti-Christ. We can see the description in Chapter II of his second book for Thessalonians. St. Paul has described Anti-Christ as a satanic force, who enthrones himself in God's sanctuary, performing miracles invisibly as if he is God. He has illustrated Anti-Christ as the soul of treachery; the man of sins; and the son of devastation.

Jude, who betrayed Christ, was also described as the 'Son of Devastation' (see gospel of St. John 17:12). It is obvious that the soul of Judas that betrayed Jesus and sent him to death is the 'Soul of Treachery'. The 'Man of Sins' also describes Judas. He is the enemy of Christ or Anti-Christ. So we can understand that Anti-Christ is the soul of Judas who betrayed Christ.

In earlier chapters we learned that the Temple of God is the Roman Catholic Church that Christ built on the Peter, 'the rock'. So it is clear that Roman Catholic Church itself will be the venue for Judas (Anti-Christ) to perform miracles in the name of Christ, in a special period of time, with the consent of God.

Since Anti-Christ will be present in the Church of God, it can be understood that he will be perform miracles and signs through visions. This is the realization of the prophecy of Jeremiah: "The daughter of God's people will fall in her vision time".(Jeremiah 8:12)

"It cannot happen until the Great Revolt has taken place and the Rebel, the Lost One, has appeared. This is the Enemy, the one who claims to be so much greater than all that men call 'God', so much greater than anything that is worshipped, that he enthrones himself in God's sanctuary and claims that he is God." (II Thessalonians 2:4)

From the topic given above, we understood that the Church of God said here the Roman Catholic Church and the descriptions: son of devastation; the man of sins; and the enemy of Christ, all portrays the betrayer, Judas Iscariot.[Judas mentioned here is the man who Betrayed Jesus Christ. There is one more Judas referred in the New Testament who is the son of James and he is treated as a saint.]

"But when the Rebel comes, Satan will set to work: there will be all kinds of miracles and a deceptive show of signs and portents, and everything evil that can deceive those who are bound for destruction because they would not grasp the love of the truth which could have saved them. The reason why God is sending a power to delude them and make them believe what is untrue is to condemn all who refused to believe in the truth and chose wickedness instead.” (II Thessalonians 2:9-12)

Christ has clearly described the signs that can be seen during the period when the rebel starts to perform miracles and signs after taking a place in the Church of God.

“Thou shall not go if someone told you that I am in the deserts” (Mathew 24:26). “Thou shall not go if someone told you that I am inside the room” (Mathew 24:24). “He shall seduce even the selected ones” (Mathew 24:24). We can understand that these prophecies of Christ has fulfilled recently.

Recently there were photos in newspapers of the image of Christ that was visible in a sandstorm in the Somalian desert in Africa.

This can easily be understood beyond doubt as an act of Anti-Christ to lure everyone into his miracles and signs of the charismatic conventions in the Catholic Church (Temple of God).

We can see charismatic institutions, believing that church is not enough for their conventions, constructing special rooms away from churches in many places. This fulfills even in literal sense the holy words of Christ “Thou shall not go if someone told you that I am inside the room”.

Recently certain Redemption Churches has been emerged from the catholic fulfilling the words “He shall seduce even the selected ones”. They are not accepting the Pope, the shepherd appointed by Christ. For the same reason they are the misled ones . The reason for the establishment of Redemption Churches is because of the emergence of charismatic institutions. So no more proof is necessary to state that charismatic institutions are works of Anti-Christ.

Christians may argue that since the miracles happen in presence of the Holy Mass, the ‘Soul of Treachery’ will not be present in charismatic conventions. Since God has given Anti-Christ a period to delude the evil people, neither Holy Mass nor Rosary will prevent his efforts.

There are no instances in Bible where Christ asking people money while he performed miracles or while he cured suffering persons. It is also seen that he praised the small offering of the widow. But it is given in Bible about Judas carrying a moneybag and taking money that fell into it. Here we can observe the greediness of Judas.

Collecting money from rich believers is a speciality of charismatic conventions. Christ never said “You have the wealth to give me hundred Denarii. So give me”

Another fact is that the prophecies of charismatic performers are never realized. In charismatic conventions there are cases where people are called by name and cured. But calling by names is not prophecy, just declaring what existed there. If charismatic performers prophesied that something special would happen in future (within a stipulated time period), it is not seen happening. We can understand that their prophecies are becoming bogus.

In the following lines I will cite what happened in one charismatic convention in a Catholic church nearby. Around 15,000 people had gathered for the convention. The premises of church were so crowded that many had to stand by the sides of the main road. In the last day of the convention, there was a vision to Fr. Mathew Naykampampil V.C. The vision was that within an year a miracle will happen to the east of the parish and as a result thousands of Hindus would receive baptism and join the Catholic Church. It has been six years now and still no miracle has happened or a single Hindu was converted to Catholic. These visions and miracles are the fulfillment of the prophecy of Jeremiah that the daughter of God's people (Christianity) will fall in her time of vision.

There are also two other instances in Bible about Anti-Christ. One is in the Book of Zechariah, end of Chapter 11. Here there is mention about the 30 silver coins that they considered as the price for Christ and also about the emergence of a bogus shepherd. It was for 30 silver coins that Judas betrayed Jesus.

[In Chapter 12 of the Book of Zechariah there is mention about the second arrival of Christ (God). "But over the House of David and the citizens of Jerusalem I will pour out a spirit of kindness and prayer. They will look on the one whom they have pierced; they will mourn for him as for an only son, and weep for him as people weep for a first-born child." (Zechariah 12:10)

In the Book of Revelations 1:7 it is given that Christ will come to earth like a lightning appearing in the sky (See Luke 17:24 also). "Look; he is coming with the clouds, and every eye will see him even those who pierced him, and all the people of the earth will mourn because of him....." (Revelations 1:7)

The above two extracts prove that Christ is yet to come again. So the miracles seen in Charismatic Conventions are from a deceiver.

The second mention about Anti-Christ is in the Book of Revelations Chapter 13, verses 11-18. Here we can see a power, that is a devotee of Satan, who himself claims as Christ doing miracles in the name of Christ. It is very difficult to understand that this power (the power that performs miracles in charismatic conventions) is an Evil Spirit, which is an admirer of Satan. But if you follow the following calculations and descriptions, it will be very easy.

It maybe because the 'Soul of Treachery' is performing miracles in the name of Christ that in the Book of Revelations it was given the number of Beast, 666. According to Numerology the number that represents Christ is 9. '6' is a whole number.

$$6 + 6 + 6 = 18$$

$$1 + 8 = 9$$

Also if we add the value of the letters of the holy name Jesus, we will get the number 9.

J=1, E=5, S=3, U=6, S=3

$1 + 5 + 3 + 6 + 3 = 18$

$1 + 8 = 9$

It is because the Beast (Anti-Christ) claims that he himself as God (Christ) and that he is given the number. When someone gets cured during charismatic miracles, it is claimed that Christ had cured them. But the fact is that Anti-Christ (666) is doing the miracles in the name of Christ (9) claiming himself as Lord.

When the stipulated time for Beast (Anti-Christ) is over, it is said the Lamb (Christ) will appear with his forces on top of Mount Zion. (See Revelations 14:1)

The prophecies in the Book of Zechariah and in Revelations are one and the same, the only difference being the presentation style. The day that the Lamb (Christ) comes to Earth with all his forces is the “Great day of Wrath”. We will discuss more details about that day in another chapter.

If we learn the holy words of God in detail, we can see that before the Great day of Wrath, the materialistic Holy Temple of God (materialistic) for eternity had to be built. This is because; when Christ appears he will first enter the Holy Temple according to the prophecies of Malachi and Zechariah. “Look, I am going to send my messenger to prepare a way before me. And the Lord you are seeking will suddenly enter his Temple; and the angel of the covenant whom you are longing for, yes he is coming, says Yahweh. Who will be able to resist the day of his coming? Who will remain standing when he appears? He will purify the sons of Levi and refine them like gold and silver... The offering of Judah and Jerusalem will then be welcomed by Yahweh as in former days, as in the years of old.” (Malachi 3:1-5)

So it is clear from Malachi 3:1-5 that; when Christ appears he will enter the holy Temple of Jerusalem and purify the sons of Levi. Also the offerings as in years of old will come into force. This shows that the second arrival of Christ will be after the construction of the Temple of Jerusalem.

In Zechariah 12:10-11, we can see the Jews weeping on the Day of Wrath of God, when he comes with his pierce marks. “They will look on the one whom they have pierced”. You may argue that this prophecy has already fulfilled. But from Revelations (Revelation 1:7) we learned that it is yet to be fulfilled in its full sense and meaning.

Since the prophecy regarding Anti Christ has successfully fulfilled in Roman Catholic Church, the daughter of God’s people, the next happening which invites the world wide attention will be the construction of the Holy Temple of God in Jerusalem. In the chapter describing the construction of the Temple of Jerusalem, we can learn that it is the fulfillment of Isaiah 46:11-13.

“From the east, I summon a bird of prey, from a far-off land, a man to fulfill my purpose. What I have said, that I will bring about, what I have planned, that I will do”.
(Isaiah 46:11-13)

If we look into the New Testament, we see, “ For where two or three come together in my name, their am I with them”. (St. Mathew 18:20).

From the above words of Christ, you may argue that Christ Himself is performing miracles in charismatic conventions. There are several occasions where we gather in the name of God; when we eat food together, before taking a journey, during evening prayers, before starting any new firm. Likewise there are many situations where Christians join together in the name of Christ and offer prayers.

Christ has clearly said that he will be present where two or three people join together in his name. But he has not offered any miracles or visions. Christ is once seen scolding his disciples when they were unable to perform miracles. “ ‘O unbelieving generation’, Jesus replied, ‘how long shall I stay with you? How long shall I put up with you?’ “
(St. Mark 9:19). This shows that Christ performed miracles only when he was in Earth with his disciples.

The defect with charismatic preachers is that they are abusing the other ‘sheep pens’ of Christ. We cannot tolerate this defect. If they were the messengers of Christ that did miracles at the charismatic conventions, there will be no such abusing (of other religions) and the prophecies of visions will not be bogus.

There is another solid proof that the invisible force behind the miracles is the ‘soul of treachery’ or ‘the man of sins’. Jews, Muslims and Hindus wear charms, made according to religious texts, to ward off evil. They are usually enclosed in gold or silver boxes are worn on the body. Jews and Muslims prepare charms based on the texts of the wisest of men, King Solomon. Hindus use charms according to the wisdom given by God to the great Sages. Some Christian priests are giving black strings and medals to believers assuming that they will enable them to escape from the attacks of evil spirits. They usually wear them in their body.

But if someone wearing these charms or medals attends charismatic conventions, they will not get any miracles or cure from diseases. The priest who conducts the convention will strictly order the believers to remove any such charms or strings. The actual reason for this is very simple. Anti-Christ cannot make contact with persons wearing these holy charms or strings. That is why Anti-Christ, through his visions to charismatic priests, gives instructions to remove the charms and strings of believers.

Since the priests that perform charismatic conventions fulfill the prophecy of Jeremiah (Jeremiah 8:12), they are great tools in the hands of God. The priests are selected people of God. But the sinners, they are being deceived by Anti-Christ. By this I do not mean that charismatic conventions must be banned or no one should attend such conventions.

Another exiting truth is that, since the prophecy of Jeremiah is fulfilled through the Roman Catholic Church, it can be easily understood that it is the church that Christ established. Even though there are more than four thousand factions of Christianity, being a Catholic is very fortunate because he is a member of the church of the daughter of the people of God.

I hope this chapter may encourage many Christians who are not Catholics to study about the only holy church established by Christ and to become members of the Catholic Church. It does not mean that salvation is possible only through Catholic Church.

Because in the gospel, it is seen “ Master”, said John, “we saw a man driving out demons in your name and we tried to stop him because he is not one of us”. Jesus replied, “ Do not stop him. For whoever is not against you is for you”. This incident reveals the fact that it is necessary for the catholic believers to approve and respect the whole other Christian communities.

In charismatic conventions, Anti-Christ declares himself as Christ and doing miracles in the name of Christ and deceives the believers and priests. Also in another way, the Anti-Christ is active in the Catholic Church very cunningly. It is nothing but the 604 messages known as ‘ Messages given by St. Mary’. Some messages among these 604 messages present the neighbouring righteous religions (Other sheep pen of Christ) as false one as they are portrayed as they don` t have any belief in God.

We can see so many messages among these 604 messages giving more preference and importance to the current Pop of Rome , which is against the righteous tradition of the Church that all the Pops are respected treated them equal. By immensely praising the current Pop, the messages indirectly degrade the Pops to come. Is flattering the deed of Satan?

The message denying this small book can be seen in 451-D of the said collection of messages.

These messages are known as messages given by St. Mary through ‘Father. Stphano Gobi’.

We have already seen that God won` t give His glory to anybody. We can only see the programmes or plans of God through out the history of the world. But we can see the usage ‘ the Plans of St. Mary’ in many places in messages among the 604 messages. Think, what a blunder it is! Even uneducated or illiterate people know that the priests are invoked or selected by God Himself. But we can see in some of the messages that the Christian priests are selected by St. Mary. I can not say how ironical these messages are! We don` t need any other evidences for the fact that the 604 messages though Fr. Stephano Gobi are from the Anti-Christ.

St. Mary does not have any special Programmes. St. Mary only co-operates with the plan of God. If the Christians have a sound knowledge in this regard, then they will be saved from deceived by such pseudo messages. The message through Fr. Stephano Gobi teaches ‘ not to hear the words of scholars’. St. Mary will never say ‘ Don` t hear the words of scholars’. But Anti-Christ will surely say like that because Anti-Christ is a Satanic force. Remember, ‘ Don` t hear the words of scholars’ is equal to say ‘Don` t go to school’ , ‘ Don` t study anything’.[Christians treat King Solomon as the scholar among the scholars. If so, the messages through Fr. Gobi ask us not to listen to the words of King Solomon ie abandon the books in the holy Bible Proverbs and Wisdom written by King Solomon].

If we analyze it with the help of numerology, we can understand that the 604 messages are not from St. Mary.

Calculation 1.

If the messages are given by St. Mary to Fr. Gobi, then the second calculation also will yield the number 19. Suppose the total number of messages be ‘397’. 3+9+7=19, 1+9=10.

Then we can surely say that they are from St. Mary.

The above calculations show that the above messages are given by somebody else, misusing the name of St. Mary. The message against this book is given below.

Message –451-D.

“We should forcibly oppose the intellectual power of the famous scholars who sliced the holy gospel of Christ by listing foolish interpretations only on the basis of Anthropology and also in the light of human intellect and thoughts and also tempted and inspired by a pseudo science and a false feeling of pride. We should oppose these as Apostles of the last era. The prophecy of St. Paul has now come true, ie the prophecy, ‘Somebody will declare wrong teachings which are not heard before and therefore so many people will go after such pseudo things and will divert from the gospel truths', has now fulfilled".

'The pseudo science' indicates Astrology given by God to King Solomon. We know that it is a righteous science.[See Chapter Bible and Astrology] ' False feeling of pride' may indicate circumcision. As we have seen, circumcision is an eternal law. In that case, how it will become a false feeling of pride?

' The wrong teachings which are not heard before' indicates this book. I didn't write any opinion of my own in this book. I describe only some truths seen in the holy Bible with evidences. Therefore, there is no meaning in accusing that the facts written by me in this book are wrong.
